

FURS

To get the best furs we must place orders months ahead. Pelts must be cared for, matched, cut, worked over, fitted and made up. Then the finished pieces are submitted to an expert furrier who promptly puts each piece through certain tests—the fur must be full, the dye perfect, the workmanship thorough, and emphatically each fur must be true to name. Should any piece fail to pass this rigid examination it is rejected.

But while placing orders months ahead has the above advantages, we are at a disadvantage in that we have to guess the weather for the present.

The season has arrived for FURS and we are showing the most exquisite line ever brought to Pioche. You don't have to send away for them. We have them here and we sell them at prices that will astonish you.

Do not wait until the winter is half gone before buying. Why not get the full benefit of them by making your purchases now.

Christmas will soon be here and you will make no mistake if you make your wife, daughter or sweetheart a present of something in the fur line.

STATE ENGINEER SUED

Trouble Over Water Rights To Be Aired in Two Courts.

Frank R. Nicholas, state engineer, was named as defendant in a suit brought in the district court this week through H. S. Laney, attorney for William P. Nebeker and Thomas McKeon.

It appears by the complaint that the state engineer granted a permit to the plaintiffs to appropriate the waters of Cherry, Pine and Cottonwood creeks; but afterward, for reasons stated at the time, revoked the order.

The plaintiffs claim that they had already gone to considerable expense and they now sue to compel the state official to withdraw his order of revocation.

DECLARED IT OFF.

No Scientific Sparring Match Will Be Pulled Off Tonight.

The scientific boxing bout advertised to take place at Miners' Union hall this evening, between two pugilists going under the non-deplumes of Jack Odell and the Oklahoma Rosebud, has been declared off. It appears that someone spoke to District Attorney Breeze about it and when the official ascertained that the price of admission gave it the favor of a real prize fight, he referred to the statute setting forth that a license would be required and that the amount would be $1,000. This was too much, hence the program was annulled.
